

Ruling

Rulings to chain of custody Standard for certified wood and forest products

Part 0: Introduction and list of rulings (Ruling to AS 4707—2006)

INTRODUCTION

Rulings to the chain of custody Standard for certified wood and forest products are interpretations made by the Australian Forestry Standard Technical Committee [B-000] of Australian Forestry Standard Limited relating to specific enquiries that have a wide area of practical application.

The Rulings listed are issued as clarification of the chain of custody requirements covered by AS 4707, Chain of custody for certified wood and forest products.

The list of Rulings has been arranged in order of the Enquiry number and includes the relevant Section, Clause or Appendix number and subject matter e.g. 101/06, Appendix A – A6 and A7, Output batch in the %in/%out system.

It is expected that as new Rulings are published, they will be inserted in the correct date of order to facilitate reference.

Keeping Standards up-to-date

Standards are living documents which reflect progress in science, technology and systems. To maintain their currency, all Standards are periodically reviewed, and new editions are published. Between editions, amendments may be issued. Standards may also be withdrawn. It is important that readers assure themselves they are using a current Standard, which should include any amendments which may have been published since the Standard was purchased.

Detailed information about Standards can be found by visiting the Standards Web Shop at www.standards.com.au and looking up the relevant Standard in the on-line catalogue.

Alternatively, the printed Catalogue provides information current at 1 January each year, and the monthly magazine, The Global Standard, has a full listing of revisions and amendments published each month.

We also welcome suggestions for the improvement in our Standards, and especially encourage readers to notify us immediately of any apparent inaccuracies or ambiguities. Contact us via email at mail@standards.org.au, or write to the Chief Executive, Standards Australia Limited, GPO Box 476, Sydney, NSW 2001.
